

LUNG CANCER LIVING ROOM

A Patient Education & Support Monthly Series

TUNE IN ONLINE OR ATTEND IN-PERSON.

TOPIC:

Why Biomarker Testing is Important

MODERATOR:

Jennifer King, PhD
Senior Director, Science & Research, GO₂ Foundation for Lung Cancer

SPEAKERS:

Winship Cancer Institute of Emory University
Dr. Suresh Ramalingam
Medical Oncologist
Dr. Drew Moghanaki
Radiation Oncologist
Dr. Onkar Khullar
Cardiothoracic Surgeon
Dr. Charles Hill
Pathologist

DATE:

January 22, 2020
5:30-7:30 p.m.
Eastern Time
In-person attendees invited for dinner at 5:00 p.m.

PLACE:

Emory Conference Center Hotel
1615 Clifton Road, Garden Level - Azalea Room, Atlanta, Georgia
or Your Living Room, via YouTube or Facebook

How to Participate

All interested patients, caregivers, advocates, and health care professionals are encouraged to join the conversation. There are three ways to participate:

- 1. In person – if you live close to Atlanta, join us for dinner and conversation.
- 2. Facebook Live facebook.com/GO2Foundation – tune in at 5:30 pm ET and ask questions online.
- 3. YouTube Live broadcast youtube.com/GO2FoundationforLungCancer – tune in at 5:30 pm ET.

For more information, contact the Patient Services Team at 650.598.2857 or livingroom@go2foundation.org.

